2020 Membership Guide Individuals

Welcome to the Family

Thank you for considering becoming a member of Volleyball WA. This pack aims to serve as a guide to the types of membership you can choose, providing information about the services available and the process to register.

Volleyball WA (VWA) is the governing body of Volleyball in Western Australia, striving to develop our sport at all levels. Our mission is to 'promote healthy lifestyles through volleyball, facilitating safe opportunities for fun exercise'. We believe that volleyball in WA is underpinned by the following values that drive our priorities and initiatives: inclusive, family, respect, growth, wellbeing and accessible.

Volleyball can be played anywhere; indoor and indoor beach facilities, on the beach, in the park or in the pool! We are passionate about the opportunities that the sport can provide and we hope that you enjoy your volleyball experience.

Robyn Kuhl
Chief Executive Officer

Why Become a Member?

Access to events and competitions

Volleyball Australia, VWA and its affiliates provide a wide range of events and activities for all skill levels. The sliding scale of VWA membership has therefore been developed dependent upon the level of events and activities that you may wish to participate in.

Insurance

Personal Accident Insurance (whilst participating in VWA sanctioned events and activities) is available for a number of membership categories. Please refer to the Volleyball WA Membership Services diagrams for a breakdown of member benefits. Further information about Personal Accident Insurance can also be found on the VWA website, www.volleyballwa.com.au/about-us/

Player Development

The Volleyball FTEM (Fundamentals, Talent, Elite & Mastery) pathway aims to provide a range of access points for volleyball players of all ages and abilities. As a member of VWA you will be able to access programs and pathways (where applicable), including:

- Kid Volley - Spikezone programs
- Discover Volleyball and Rediscover Volleyball activities
- Junior development initiatives
- State Team trials

Referee and Coach Development

Through the Club and Workforce Development Coordinator, Coaches and Referees can access specific development opportunities. These include:

- VA Coach and Referee Courses
- Accreditation guidance (including Recognition of Prior Learning)
- Mentoring Support
- Observational opportunities
- Resources and information sessions
- Presenter development

VWA wishes to ensure that education is accessible locally and is working with the regional affiliates to establish Education Hubs.

Sponsor Benefits

The following sponsor benefits and promotions are available to members (dependent on the level of membership):

- Star Physio - subsidized annual screening for all VWA athletes, 10% discount on all Star Physiotherapy Consultation fees for VWA members and priority emergency appointments at Star Physio for VWA members
- Complimentary kit hire and Inner City Beach court hire

- Member discount rates for Coach and Referee education courses

- Leadership

Individual programs can also be tailored as required. Opportunities are subject to suitability and office availability. For more information please contact operations@volleyballwa.com.au

Member Protection

VWA places the utmost importance on the provision of safe activities and environments for all.

Codes of Behaviour

VWA 'Codes of Behavior / Codes of Conduct' form the basis of appropriate and ethical conduct by which everyone must abide by. These codes are referenced in the suite of VWA Member Protection Policies, which are available on the Volleyball WA website, www.volleyballwa.com.au/about-us/ Members must also agree to abide by the VWA Membership Agreement, please refer to page 9.

Working with Children Check

Please note; if you are engaged in 'child related work' within volleyball (paid or voluntary) you will be required to complete a Working with Children Check, unless exemptions apply. If you are unsure of what this entails please contact development@volleyballwa.com.au or visit <https://workingwithchildren.wa.gov.au/>

Risk Management

VWA adopts a structured and consistent approach to assess and treat all types of risk, at all levels and for all VWA activities. The effective management of risk is a collective responsibility and members are encouraged to report any potential risks or concerns to the VWA office.

VWA has a range of policies and procedures on the website, which have been developed to meet legislative requirements and / or achieve best practice. It is the responsibility of the member to ensure that they have read and understood the VWA policies and procedures that relate to them. For assistance with policies and procedure content please contact operations@volleyballwa.com.au It is also a requirement of membership that members follow all competition rules and regulations. For assistance please contact competitions@volleyballwa.com.au

Non-Compliance

By becoming a VWA member, members are bound under the Constitution and policies of VWA. VWA is under no obligation to continue the membership should the member fail to uphold their membership agreement.

Termination of membership, either by VWA or the member, will mean the member will no longer enjoy the rights and privileges of membership from the date of termination.

Please note, membership will be placed on hold should the member become un-financial (owe money to VA, VWA or one of its affiliates) and will not be reinstated until the debt has been cleared. During this period the member will not be able to access any of the membership benefits or services.

How to Purchase your Membership

Membership is available through the VWA Member Portal. Please note that only visa and mastercard are accepted; please contact VWA if you wish to pay using a different method.
